"To live, to err, to fall, to triumph, to recreate life out of life. . . ."

—James Joyce

FOR THE FIFTIETH TIME

For the fiftieth time in our alma mater's history,
A senior class launches forth on a great venture—
The BERNARDIAN of '78, honored to be the fiftieth.
Now in retrospect we turn back to the first annual
When with true pioneering spirit, the 29'ers first
Opened up the way making it easier for the rest of us.
And so we have carried on during these fifty years,
Fifty years it may be of errors, falls, and triumphs,
But always trying to make our BERNARDIAN really live,
Constantly striving "to recreate life out of life."

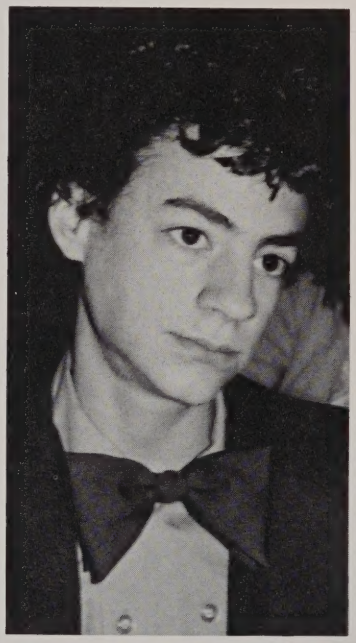
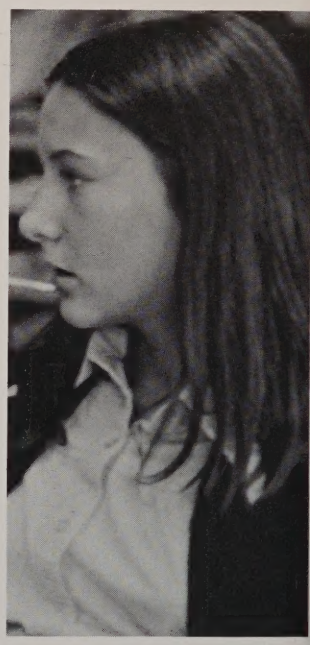
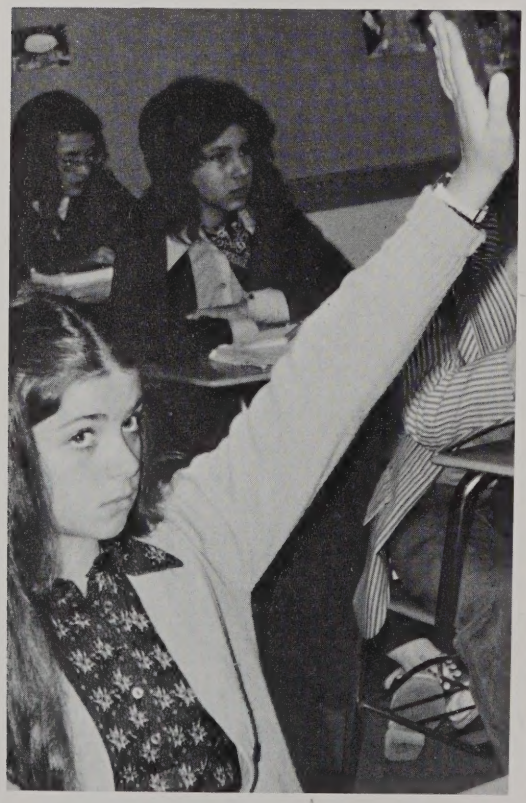
AS WE USED TO BE IN FRESHMAN DAYS

Taking a backward look and seeing ourselves as we used to be,
We must admit we have certainly changed in ways more than one.
As freshmen we still had that childlike, grammar-school look
In spite of our efforts to appear grown up and worldly wise.
Demoted and at the bottom of the ladder was not easy for us,
We who in grammar school had been the seniors and on the top.







If I can stop one heart from breaking
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

—Emily Dickinson

Love is an inner, invisible reality. But love shows itself in action. This is what Jesus meant when he said that by our living of his new love, all men know that we are his disciples. We love our brother or sister with this new love when our caring for them does not depend on whether we get something in return.

—Thomas Dubay, S.M.

Manliness consists not in bluff, bravado, or lordliness.
It consists in daring to do the right and facing consequences . . .
It consists in deeds, not in words . . .

—Mahatma Gandhi

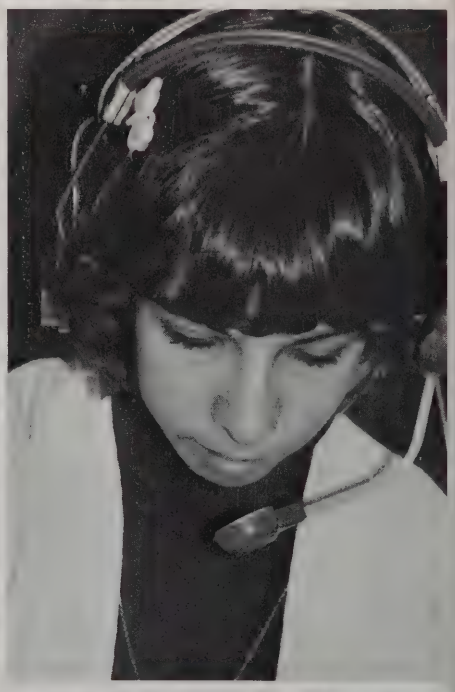
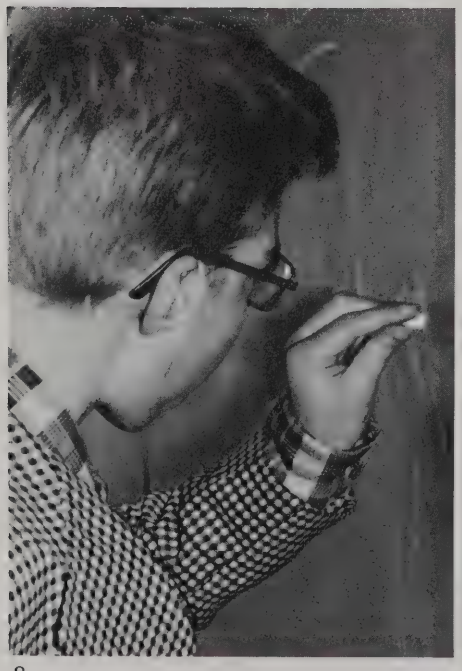
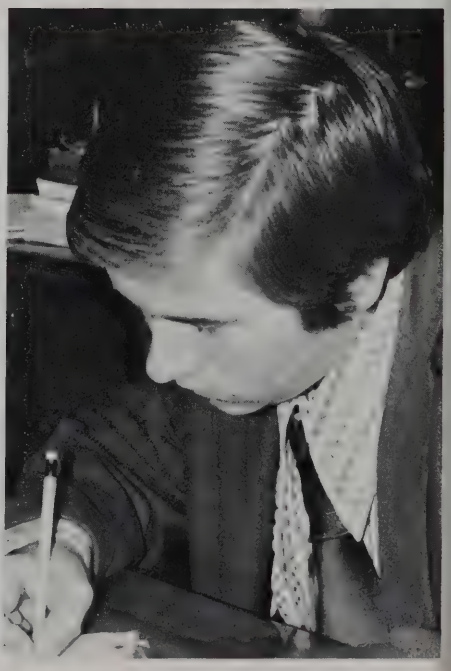
If you are crushed by a terrible burden of sin; if you feel yourself sinking into an abyss of sadness, a whirlpool of despair, think upon MARY. Following her, you will not stray; invoking her, you will never lose hope; thinking of her, you will make no mistake; with her help you will win the victory.

—St. Bernard







We can easily manage, if we will only take each day, the burden appointed for it. But the load will be too heavy for us if we carry yesterday's burden over again today, and then add the burden of the morrow to the weight, before we are required to bear it.

—John Newton

AS WE WERE AS SOPHOMORES

Looking at ourselves now as sophs, we do look a bit more grownup. We also felt more important having our own class officers: Kelly McDonald, Sharon McCloskey, Patricia Croteau, Pamela Bartoni, and Donna Richard.

A friend is one who knows everything about you and still accepts you.

—St. Augustine

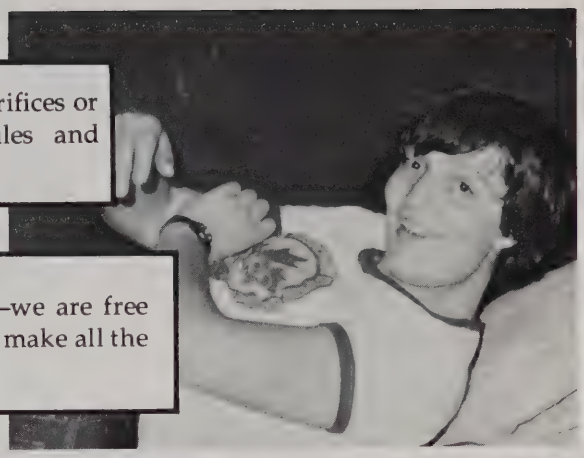
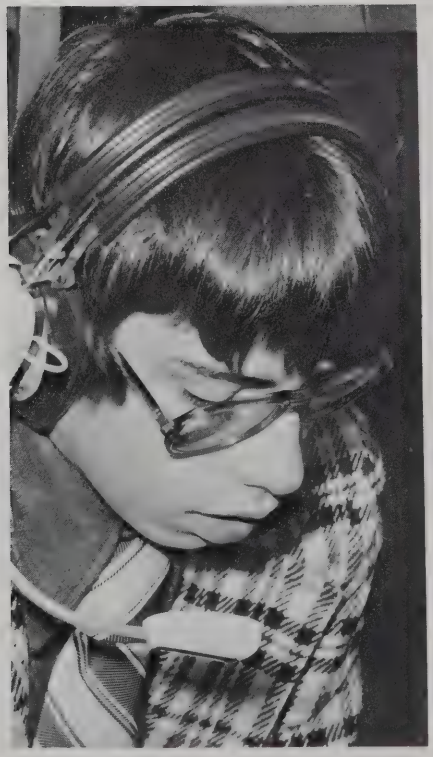
Our sophomore class play, THE LAST OF SHERLOCK HOLMES, was directed by Miss Jackson, with David Divis at the lights, and with the following cast:

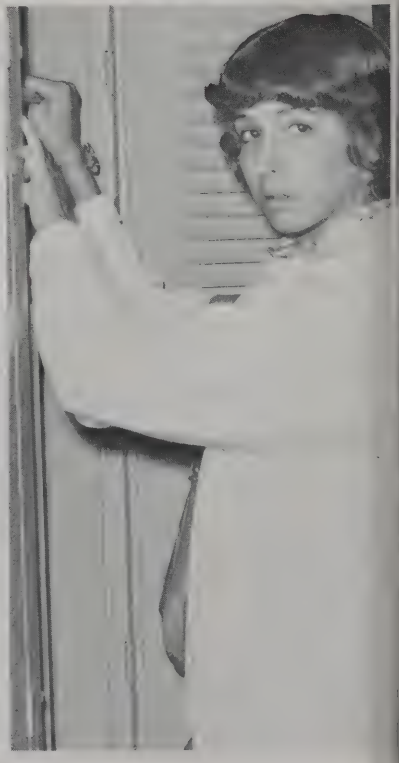
Sherlock Holmes..... Gregory Gaudet
Dr. Watson..... Michael Belliveau
Mrs. Hudson..... Paula Angelini
Lady Dimtwiddle..... Marie Eisner
Mystery Lady..... Pamela Bartoni
Detective..... David Loughlin

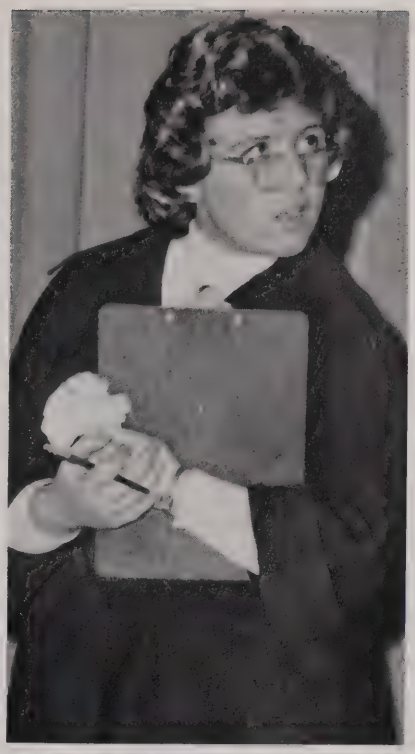
Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things—smiles and kindnesses and small obligations.

Crossroads are commonplace—we are free to choose—the road we take does make all the difference.









HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING

the all-school musical of '76.

Robert Healy was the director and DeDe Guercio, the choreographer.

Sophomores of '78 were well represented appearing in leading roles, dances, and as executives and secretaries.

AS SELF-RELIANT JUNIORS

Seeing ourselves as Juniors, we sure have that look of self assurance and poise with no inferiority complexes. We felt real grownup and ably ready to cope with a JSR and all class projects under the leadership of our class officers—Timothy Babineau, Sharon McCloskey, Patricia Croteau, Pamela Bartoni, and Donna Richard.

Every human being craves to be accepted, accepted for what he is . . . A life without acceptance is a life in which a most basic human need goes unfulfilled.

Acceptance means that the people with whom I live give me a feeling of self-respect, a feeling that I am worthwhile. When a person is loved for what he is and not for what he does, then he becomes an irreplaceable personality. I am accepted by God as I am—as I am, and not as I should be.

—Peter van Breeman

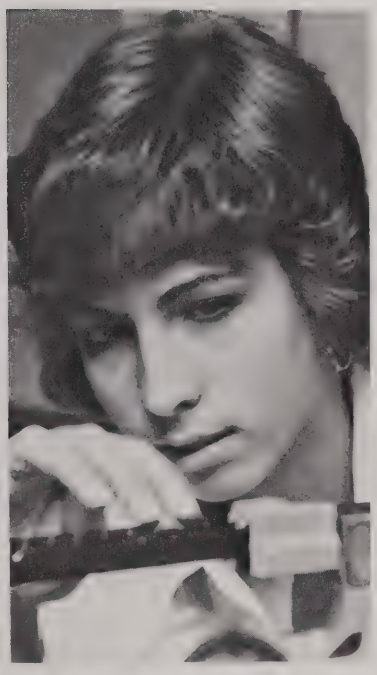
The person of hope must be one who has the ability to trust: risking all, when security is so inviting; plunging into the unknown future; saying yes, before consequences are carefully spelled out.

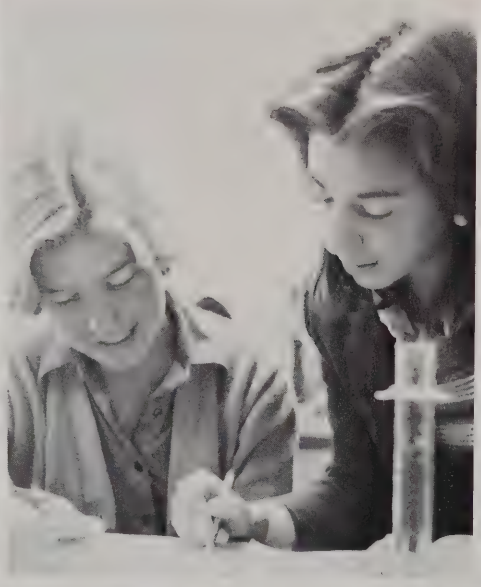
'Tis not the softer things of life,
Which stimulate man's will to strive,
But bleak adversity and strife
Do most to keep man's will alive,
O'er rose-strewn paths the weaklings creep
But brave hearts dare to climb the steep!

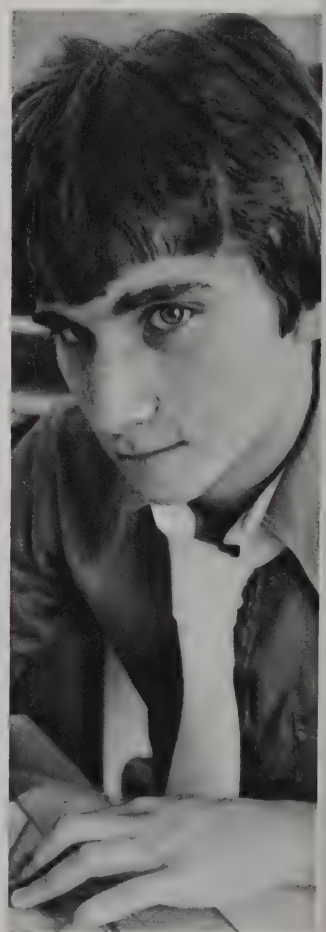
—L. E. Thayer



God has not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through
God has not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

But God has promised strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.





People still find a need for something beyond themselves after they do the best they can and then look honestly into the depth of their lives. Trying to ignore this with a stiff upper lip does not help them become mature. They become truly mature as they first develop all the capacities they have, recognizing both failures and weaknesses, and then turn to God for further wisdom and understanding and power.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

A big event during Senior week in June of '77 was the annual farewell given by the juniors to the seniors. From beginning to end, it was an unforgetable evening of friendliness and fun. The evening began with a full-course roast-beef dinner served to seniors and faculty. Following this the juniors entertained with songs, skits,and dances.

The school library today with its well-stocked book stacks is quite different from the modest little library of fifty years ago on the main corridor and what is now the guidance department.

Fifty years have come and gone away
Since the first Bernie class of '29
Entered senior year with high hopes,
Longing to make it the best of years.
So we, too, with similar class spirit,
Strive to make '68 the best class ever.

Cafeteria memories will always be happy ones to recall. Our thanks to Mrs. Rodier and her staff:

Fifty years ago the school boasted no such fine cafeteria as of today. No hot lunch was provided.

Pupils generally brought a sandwich or two from home and bought milk, crackers, pastry, candy, and ice cream at the lunch counters.

The lunchroom for the girls was located in what is now the typing room; that for the boys in space now occupied by the art room.

Contributing also to the smooth running of the cafeteria are the custodians, Mr. Delphia and Mr. Ruel.

The close of school at 2:00 brings with it, a long line of buses, so different from the bus-less days of 50 years ago, when those who lived a long distance away, boarded a trolley car on Summer Street. But the majority of the students walked whenever possible.

With three more to go, the Chess club has made a terrific record so far with five wins—Lunenburg, Monty Tech, North Middlesex, Notre Dame, and Oakmont; two ties, Fitchburg and Leominster; and no losses.

Seniors on this winning team are Robert Anderson, Damien Eilerman, Gregory Gaudet, and Brian Robideau. Mr. Nicastro is the moderator.

At the Shrewsbury Speech Tournament on November 5, The Multiple Reading Group won first place interpreting "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

First-class awards and certificates were also earned and many speakers qualified for state finals.

At the Holly Festival of December 14 at Natick, with 30 schools and 600 pupils participating, St. Bernard's scored the 8th highest. Again the Multiple Reading group won the first-place trophy.

"Do not aim at doing good to the entire world; be satisfied with doing it to the people in whose society you live."

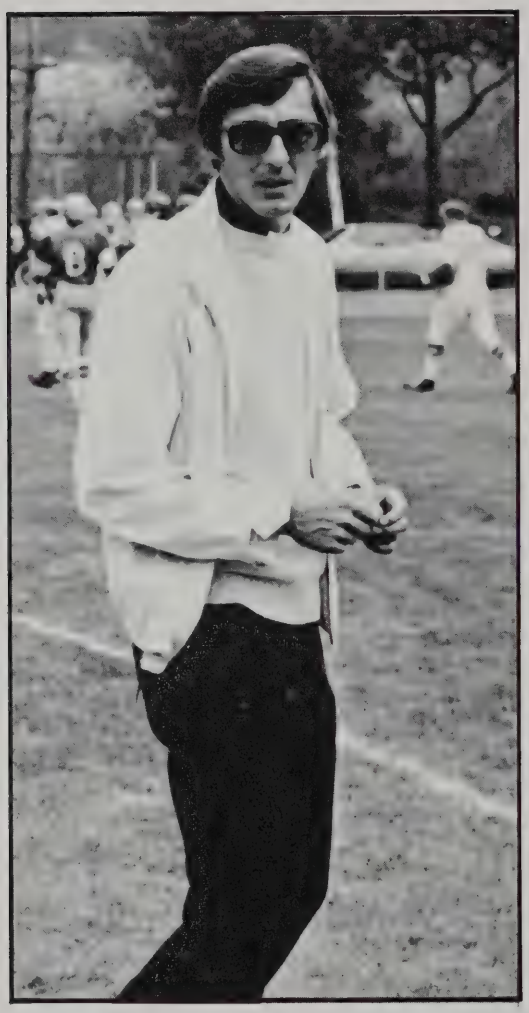
DEDICATION



Dear Father Downer,

We seniors are most happy to dedicate our 1978 Bernardian to you.

We thank you for always being so concerned and caring about each one of us, and ever available.

We will always remember you, Father, as one who was Christlike, priestly, down-to-earth, deeply involved, and very human.

Thank you for guiding us in the right direction and helping us to live happy, wholesome Christian lives.

Lovingly and gratefully,
The Class of 1978

At the annual Homecoming weekend of September 30, the Queen, Linda Halstead, was officially crowned by Tom Carroll, football, co-captain.

Timothy Babineau, Paul Gagne, Kelly McDonald, and Don Bolling presented roses to the Queen's court—Leslie Rollo, '81; Theresa Moriarty, '80; Julie Donelle, '79; Patricia Croteau '78.

The cheerleaders were very much in evidence doing their usual fine job of rousing the spirit of the fans to capacity.

Dancing, said to be the oldest of the arts, played a big part in the 10th Annual SBHS Language Fair of '77, an all-school performance with more than 400 pupils participating.

The success of the two performances was largely due not only to the variety of dances but to the well-trained dancers, coached by student choreographers.

Three of these dance directors of '77 were Paula Angelini, Lynn Celli, and Susan Miller. Paula, who has been dancing since she was six and who has given four years to directing Language Fair groups, did a tremendous job in this year's performance.

In the "Dance Through the Ages" segment, of close to 100 senior boys and girls, Paula drilled and drilled, rehearsal after rehearsal, on such dances as the Charleston, the Polka, Jitterbug, Rock 'n Roll, Mexican Hat dance. For most of the seniors this grand finale would be the last performance on SBHS stage.

The Christmas Dance of '77 was held on December 18 at the Wachusett Country Club in West Boylston from 7:30 to 11:30. Approximately 150 couples attended this gala affair with upperclassmen in the majority. The musical entertainment was provided by Shimmer. The chairmen were David Bashaw and Jane Bagley.

Fifty years ago, the class of '29 had no Christmas dance, nor did any of the classes during the 30's and the 40's. The class of '50 felt that it should go down in school history for its noteworthy achievement—the first school dance in over 10 years.

When permission was finally given for a Christmas dance, the seniors had to agree that it would be an informal affair but with the boys in suit coats and ties and no sweaters nor bobby sox for the girls. It was to be a strictly school affair with no outsiders. After the dance, all were to go directly home.

The 400 Bernies who attended had a most enjoyable evening as they danced the fox trot, jitterbug, rhumba, polka, waltz, and Virginia reel. The seniors of '50 next got permission to plan their own Senior Prom. The Alumni Association has been conducting a prom for the seniors.

The 1977 Varsity Football Team, coached by Bob Day, had its ups and downs from the very beginning of the season, experiencing the joys of victory as well as the disappointments of defeat. Injuries multiplied resulting in the loss of key members from the starting and defensive lineups.

Sunday, October 23, was a memorable day when the Bernies thumped opponent, St. Peter's of Worcester, by a 21-7 score. The entire team put in a fine performance. Kelly McDonald and Don Benoit led the offense and defensemen, Tom Carroll and Don Bolling were outstanding as well as Ed Mazzaferro and Al Piermarini.

On a rain-soaked field, the Saints defeated Lunenburg 15-14. Bad weather and bad breaks doomed SBHS to a 18-0 win for Hudson. Unbeaten Worcester South spoiled the festive homecoming game by posting a 23-3 victory over the Harvard Streeters.

The spunky effort and hard hitting fray of the Saints was eventually tilted when the Gaels of Clinton ran up the yards and scored. Athol scored early in the game and held on to beat SBHS by a 6-0 score.

In the game with powerful Cardinal Spellman of Brockton, the Saints scored on one of the most exciting plays of the season with Benoit and McDonald in action. But the Cardinals ended by posting a hard-earned 23-14 victory.

St. Bernard's ended its ten-game schedule with a 3-7 record at the close of its season.

Congratulations are certainly in order for Coach Arthur Lindberg and his impressive Saints. An outstanding record of 15-1 has been compiled over the season so far, commanding the respect of all the area teams. The Harvard Streeters, led by returning seniors—captain Mike Breton and teammates—Bob Vorse, Tom Montesion, and Paul LaFosse, opened up the 1977-78 season by edging Gardner, 4-3. St. Bernard's experienced its first and last setback when Leominster's Blue Devils upset the Bernies, 1-6. John Celli picked up the lone St. Bernard's score, averting a shutout late in the second period. However, the Saints later traveled back to soundly trounce Leominster, 5-2. Bill Morrissey and John Celli each lit the lamp twice for SBHS while John Keating tipped the fifth one in the Blue Devil net.

The Bernardians found themselves in a desperate situation with the loss of goal tender Mike Gaudet who was sidelined earlier in the season due to a leg injury. Bill, the "Ace", LeBlanc has taken his place and has been doing a superlative job tending the Bernie net.

Providing a big boost for the Harvard Street attack is the Celli-Keating-Montesion line which has accounted for much of the Bernie's success. This year the Blue and Gold is going with two sets of defensemen, Paul LaFosse and Dennis Hamel, spelled by Mike Breton and Joe Moriarty. Tom Leone and Tom Padavano have made an effective pair of linemates and have been working together well. Bob Montolio and Mark Shannon, this year's big surprises, have been seeing regular action.

The powerhouse St. Bernard's team went on for six consecutive wins when it again faced the Blue Knights of Lunenburg. Tom Montesion lit the lamp twice for the Harvard Streeters when Lunenburg took a quick lead. Celli, Montolio, and Shannon all scored to wrap up a 5-2 victory putting them in sole possession of first place. The Bernie's then went on to crush Fitchburg, Notre Dame, Hudson Catholic, and Murdock high schools. High hopes are riding on the Harvard Street icemen as they defend their Central-Western Massachusetts, Division II, Championship.

FRESHMAN

James Rheault

Varsity Basketball started its 1977-78 season with a new coach—Bob Bourque, a Bernardian, and a former player of the old powerhouse teams that went to the Garden in 1967 and 1969. He was fortunate in having a team that made up for its height disadvantage with grit, quickness, and aggressiveness. On the squad were seniors David Bashaw, Thomas Carroll, Michael Condon, Paul Hutchinson, David Loughlin, Kelly McDonald, and Edward Mazzaferro. Junior players were Donald Benoit, Daniel Gamache, Kevin Ouellette, and Peter Slattery; sophomore, Steven Loughlin.

After losing their first three games to St. Mary's, Wachusett Regional, and Holy Name, St. Bernard's traveled to Clinton to give Coach Bourque an early Christmas present, when the Bernies crushed the Gaels by 30 points. Outstanding were Pete Slattery, Ed Mazzaferro, Paul Hutchinson, and Steve Loughlin. This victory gave the Saints the needed momentum as they entered the Lunenburg tournament. In the first round SBHS defeated Leominster High. Two nights later the Harvard Streeters capped the tourney by dealing undefeated Lunenburg its first loss. Pete Slattery was the big gun and was named the Most Valuable Player, receiving the MVP trophy.

The Bernies, however, slipped to powerful St. John's and to Leominster. But the tide changed quickly with two more consecutive wins over Gardner and Notre Dame, with Benoit and Slattery teaming up for 36 against the Crusaders.

The improved Saints were involved in a few close battles. First, the St. Peter's tilt with Slattery's 22 and McDonald's 15 nearly shocking the taller Guardians. The first quarter of the game with Fitchburg High saw hopes of a Harvard Street upset, but that went down the drain. The Blue and Gold had a wild high-scoring affair against St. Peter-Marian, 83-77, the highest scoring game in some time.

To date, the Bernardians' record is five wins against six losses.

Junior Varsity Basketball, from beginning to end, played a very exciting brand of basketball, inspired and influenced by its new coach, David Benoit. Playing on the team were juniors, Brian Morin and Dean Smith; and sophomores, Jim Adams, Jim Bilotta, Steve Boucher, Joe Carbone, Steve Conroy, Charles Farinelli, John Sciabarrasi, Tom Surrette, and Jim Whittemore.

The Bernies won eight of its first nine games. They had no difficulty over St. Mary's, Notre Dame, and Gardner. They also had their share of close battles with Clinton, Wachusett, and Holy Name along with a pair of stunning upsets over St. Peter-Marian and St. John's.

Then a decline set in with losses to Leominster, Holy Name, St. John's, and Fitchburg. They had to bite the bullet a little, losing to Leominster on a steal with 4 seconds left; Wachusett, by 2; St. Peter-Marian by 3 in a wild one; and Fitchburg, by 6, in a game that saw the Bernardians leading throughout much of the first half.

The future holds many promises with returning players complemented by small but equally strong Freshmen. Coach Benoit has his team and himself established as strong contenders in the area.

Hard work and dedication are key words for the Girls' Varsity Basketball team coached by Mr. Nicastro. This year's team is young consisting of one senior, Mary Beth Buckley; seven juniors, Brigit Bergeron, Theresa Craite, Simone Couture, Kelly Cuddahy, Pamela Legere, Rose Mazzaferro, Ellen Ray; two sophomores, Melanie Burns, Kathy McDonald; and freshman, Beth Julius. Although the team lacks the height and experience of previous years, their determined spirit gives them the drive to win.

In the victory over Clinton, high scorers were Kelly Cuddahy, Brigit Bergeron, and Melanie Burns. The varsity team was the winner of the Lunenburg Invitational Tournament held for the first time for the girls. St. Bernard's beat Leominster in the first round, 61-60, on a free throw in the final seconds. In the finals they defeated Lununberg, 62-55. Melanie Burns was voted the Most Valuable Player.

Unfortunate injuries to girls Cuddahy, Mazzaferro, and Leger accounted for the losses that followed. But the team soon came back and was successful against Notre Dame Academy and Fitchburg High, and also played an excellent game against Gardner although not emerging with a victory.

With two more games to play, the team has a record of 8 wins and 8 losses.

The Girls' Junior Varsity team under the coaching of Mrs. Garofoli has had a very successful season so far with an 8 and 3 record. The team opened up their season at Clinton with a 41-0 victory. The next team to beat was North Middlesex with Donna Dower, Paula Zarrella, and Sherry McDermott playing an excellent defensive game.

Though a loss was taken against Holy Name, the girls played a tough game. Laura Kent was high scorer. A third loss was with a tough Wachusett team. But after their losses, the girls bounded back with victories over Leominster and Notre Dame Academy. Mona Morock, Kathy Reynolds, and Mary Hebert played well offensively. In the victory game against Fitchburg, Megan Havey had a good game for rebounds. In the closely-won game with St. Peter-Marian, Jackie Skehan contributed the winning two points. Renee' Forget and Kathy McNabb were high scorers. Charlotte Arsenault played an excellent game.

Address to Seniors by
Mr. Thomas Estaphan

As our yearbook comes to an end we now find ourselves
In the midst of winter with drifts of snow heaped high,
The aftermath of a blizzard—"The Worst in History,"—
Snow whirling wildly, driven by hurricane-force winds,
With no buses or any other means of getting to school,
Days of cancellations of appointments and activities.

The class of '38 very likely recalls its calamitous year,
When a disastrous hurricane struck with violent ferocity;
When a mighty willow tree which for years had cast it's
Shadow, in late afternoon, on the west wall of the school,
Now lay flattened on the ground, uprooted and lifeless.

But God wills that life should go on, and so it happens.
In this case, a frail, little sapling, bent and battered,
But made stronger by the storm, lifted up it's tiny head,
And continued to grow, year by year, for four decades,
Gigantic today as its mother willow was in her prime.

And so it is with us today with snow loathe to leave us,
For deep under this wintry blanket, cold and forbidding,
In a small garden plot, sheltered close to the building,
Crocuses are patiently waiting for the longed-for moment
When they can poke their green noses up out of the earth,
Brave and daring, through the remaining patches of snow.
Harbingers of spring, we happily anticipate your coming!
